Study visit focused on Historical Heritage:

- Aspendos, Demre, Myra & Kekova : A two-hour journey will take us to the ancient city of Myra, where we will visit the church of St. Nicholas, who is better known as Santa Claus. Very little is known about his life apart from the fact that he was the bishop of Myra in 4th century and later became the patron saint of Greece, Russia and of children and travelers. After lunch in a local restaurant, we will proceed to Kekova Harbor for boarding for about two hours journey as “Blue Voyage” where you are going to have a change if you want to swim in beautiful Turquoise bays of Mediterranean Sea and also, the ruins of a city, whose large part has sunk under sea, can be viewed. That is why the island is very important in terms of underwater archaeology. About late afternoon we will drive back to your Hotel. DURATION: EIGHT HOURS
- Antalya city tour and Archeological Museum: The tour begins with a coach journey to famous “Archeological Museum”. Its exhibition consist the very best samples of the Hellenistic and the Roman antiquities, selected statues and the collection of mosaics. Then, proceed to city center for visiting the memorial Hadrian Arch, the Clock Tower and Kaleici, which is the nucleus of the city and has been restored to an attractive tourist center with its hotels, restaurants, and entertainment facilities. DURATION: THREE AND A HALF HOURS
- Archeological Highlights , With its architectural and archeological wealth, “Perge” is one of the most interesting ancient cities. This is where one of the most splendors ancient civilizations located once upon a time and the ruins in which St Paul began preaching after arriving from Cyprus. Highlights are the Gymnasium, the Bath, the Agora, the Theatre, the Stadium and the Hellenistic Gate. Another one of the Pamphylia cities is “Aspendos”.
