

On the September 5th 2010 EUROCLIO will join with LANDIS – the National Laboratory for History Education in Italy – and EVROPAEVM to organize an In-Service Teacher Training Event within the EUROCLIO Project “Connecting Europe through History-Experiences and Perceptions of Migrations in Europe” series for it’s 7th event. The full day programme about “The Transition from an Emigration Country to an Immigration Country” within the context of recent research, the role of the media and History Teaching, is available for download.