International Association for Intercultural Education (IAIE) 2021

Intercultural Education in an Age of Information and Disinformation

June 27-30, 2021 | Kibbutzim College of Education, Technology and the Arts, Tel Aviv, Israel

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The recent outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic has brought new challenges and rapid changes, which have initiated extensive discussion on key social and educational concepts, such as, racism, equity, nationality, empathy, diversity, and technology. These concepts form a basis for discourse on their role in intercultural education. In this conference, we will discuss a variety of topics relevant to the new global situation, among other intercultural topics.

The conference includes the following strands:
- Peace Education
- Cooperative and Collaborative Learning in Multicultural Settings
- Using Assistive Technology (AT) to Promote Universal Design for Learning (UDL) in an Inclusive Learning Environment
- Language Awareness
- Educational Assessment Suitable for the Multicultural Era of the 21st Century
- History Education and Multiculturality
- Democracy and Mutual Life
- Technology to Promote Globalization & Intercultural Education
- Intercultural Competence: Policies and Innovative Practices
- Empathy & Gender
- Diverse Academia
- Ecohumanism and the Challenges of Cultural and Environmental Sustainability
- Religious Education, Immigration and Interreligious Education

* Detailed information about each strand is presented on the conference website:

■ ABOUT TEL AVIV

Kibbutzim College of Education is located in the heart of Tel Aviv, the economic and cultural heartbeat of the country. Tel Aviv is cosmopolitan, young, and vibrant, with many leisure time options: theatres, museums, markets, cafes, and gourmet restaurants, as well as, of course, its glorious beaches and boardwalk. Tel Aviv is also a UNESCO world heritage site, thanks to its distinctive architecture being carefully preserved and restored: truly a city with something for everyone.
